

CURTIS, STEPHEN. President, Community College of Philadelphia 1999-present, a public institution with 4 campuses. Ph.D., Music Performance Practice, Washington University in St. Louis; M.M., Choral Conducting, Washington University; A.B., Music, Middlebury College. Visiting Professor of Music, Queens College/CUNY 1998-1999, 1995-1996; Acting President, Queens College 1994-1995; Acting President, Borough of Manhattan Community College/CUNY 1992-1994; Dean of Academic Affairs, Borough of Manhattan Community College 1988-1992; President, Hudson Valley Community College/SUNY 1996-1998; Associate Dean of Humanities, St. Louis Community College at Forest Park 1983-1988; Chair, Department of Music, St. Louis Community College at Forest Park 1977-1983; Professor of Music, St. Louis Community College at Forest Park 1969-1983. Current service on AACC Commission on Global Education, ACE Commission on International Education. Past President, Pennsylvania Commission for Community Colleges 2003-05, past Vice President 2000-03. Serve on Boards of Community College National Center for Community Engagement, Free Library of Philadelphia, Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, Life Science Career Alliance (Board Chair), Pennsylvania Campus Compact, Philadelphia Workforce Investment Board. Publications include edited editions of Renaissance choral music. Conference presentations on globalization, diversity, workforce policy and initiatives, strategic planning, and student success indicators and initiatives.